What's New at Buhler!

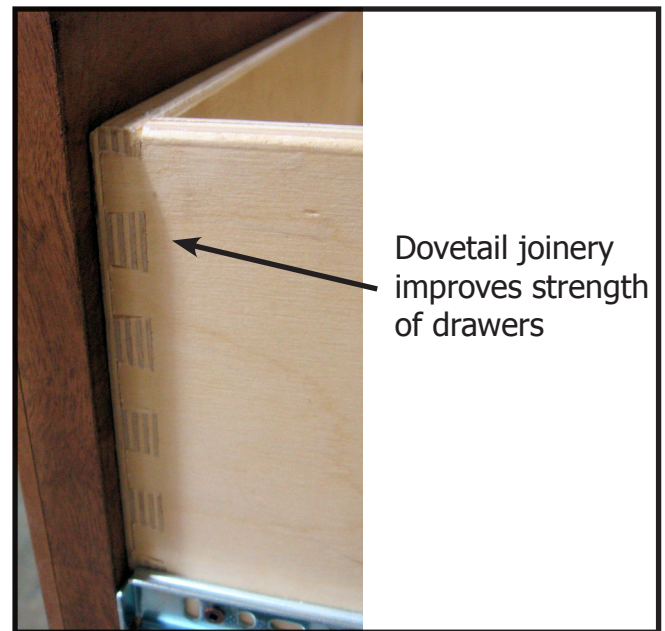

Vol 1.1

August 2009

Buhler Furniture announces changes to drawer construction!

Effective immediately, our cabinet drawers will feature dovetail joinery which provides increased strength and a Buhler Furniture stamp to indicate authenticity and superior craftsmanship.

Buhler Furniture is always looking at new ways to provide better value to our customers and these improvements are just another way in which we're able to do that!

Stamp included in drawer boxes to indicate Buhler craftsmanship

Buhler Furniture is pleased to introduce you to the What's New at Buhler newsletter which will provide our dealers and customers with the latest in what's happening at our plant and what we're doing to better serve you, our valued customer.
